The concept of Galerie Huit is accessible contemporary art in an informal, welcoming setting. By combining traditional wall exhibits with modern multi-media displays, art lovers can experience the maximum number of pieces, both virtually and in reality. We offer art classes, wine tastings, book readings and cultural activities to complement our rotating art exhibitions, which feature exciting international artists in many media. We believe access to vibrant art and living artists is vital in a healthy, rounded society. Galerie Huit's owner Jane Chao has a clear vision: the best contemporary art for the widest audience.
