HONG KONG ART:

Valerie Bastit Laudier

New kid on the block, Identity Art Gallery in the Sheung Wan art hub, opens its doors with an exhibition by French expat artist Valerie Bastit Laudier. Having spend nearly a decade in Japan, Laudier learned the sacred art of calligraphy as an apprentice to a scroll-writing master. This immersion into an ancient Japanese custom, together with her painterly style, have resulted in a series of original screen artworks that combine iconography from both the East and the West.
